

THE BEST OF COLORADO LIVING

COLORADO expression

Cheers To Summer With Cocktails That Celebrate The Sunshine

Warmer weather is here and with it comes summer cocktails perfect for a refreshing afternoon

by Chad Chisholm

Warmer temperatures in the Mile High City mean patios are opening for eager patrons ready to enjoy all that late spring and summer have to offer—and that includes cocktails. From light and citrusy to warming and rich, there's a cocktail for every flavor profile. What better way to accentuate your patio pleasure than with a refreshing chilled sipper? We found five cocktails that will be sure to quench your thirst in hip surroundings for a happy hour, catch-up with friends, or fun night out.

Snake in the Grass from Elway's

Whether enjoying a cocktail at the newly renovated ELWAY'S Downtown, in the relaxing spa, or in one of Denver's only full-service club lounges, the Ritz-Carlton Denver has you covered. Snake in the Grass at ELWAY'S Down-town is a quintessential summer drink that is decidedly Instagram-worthy.